group, algebra, wants 425 books.

Every man needs a college education before entering a profession, believes the Rev. S. S. Eatey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Two years of liberal arts and two years of specialization are not enough, he says, because the schooling is to develop and not to immediately produce a the heavily degreed men among Topeka clergy.

ered from $9 and $5 cents to $2 which was recently built and save theater hire.

Julia Myrtle is the name that Provi-dent association officers have bestowed eyes almost goldbricked a minister's day. He was taking subscriptions to magazines and claimed that if he could get so many the magazine would send him to college. The minister's wife had bitten once before and turned him down. He went next door and told the neighbor that the minister's wife had endorsed him. The neighbor subscribed and let him take some money to the drug store to make change. She is still waiting for the change.

Suit for $2,181.30 has been filed in the district court by Rexell Shipp against Mary Gandy. Shipp in his complaint alleges that in November, 1915, he purchased the Aurora theater, 612 Kansas avenue, from the defendant. He paid her $2,000 for the business, he says. Because the condition of the theater was misrepresented, according to allegations of Shipp, he wants the court to compel Mrs. Gandy to return the money he invested. Part of the $2,000 was paid in

SKIDS ON CAR TRACK
Dr. Lull's Ford Tries to Climb a Telephone Pole.

The quarantining of a case of measles in Seabrook was held up several hours Thursday evening owing to a delay of the county physician, Dr.
Claude C. Lull in arriving. A slippery street car track, the doctor's new Ford and a telephone pole were direct causes of the delay.

Lull was driving west on Seventeenth street and West street when his auto skidded on the car tracks and started to ascend the pole. The front end of the car was considerably damaged. The radiator, fenders and lights suffered the most severely.
